[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JUNE 22.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Affairs in France.

PARIS, June 21.—The Avenir, Nationale, and Nation Souveraine have joined the Union Republican press.

Rochefort's trial will commence on Monday next, and that of Russel and Lullier will immediately follow. The court martial before which the cases will come for trial will sit in Palais Justice at Versailles.

Bordeaux conservatives present the name of Montesqui, Remero and Reipoise (Legitimatists) as candidates. The Orleans candidates, Jerome, Davis and Bonneville, were insulted but not injured by a mob, yesterday.

VERSAILLES, June 21.—The speech of Thiers produced an excellent impression in consequence of the clearness of the financial statement, and the announcement that there would be annually set apart two hundred millions as a sinking fund. It is anticipated that the loan will be a complete success.

It is believed the courts martial will not meet before the election.

PARIS, June 21.—The French postal service is restored while the telegraph is unrestored. Telegrams relative to the loan are accepted by post.

Yellow Fever Disappearing at Buenos Ayres.

BUENOS AYRES, May 24.—The yellow fever is disappearing.

Minister Schenck in London.

LONDON, June 21.—Schenck's credentials were presented on Friday.

Italian Affairs.

FLORENCE, June 21.—The Chamber of Deputies has approved all articles of the reorganization bill.

EASTERN STATES.

Gen. Sherman at Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—General Sherman has returned from his tour throughout the West and Southwest. He considers the apprehensions of a widespread Indian war on the Texas frontier in a great measure unfounded. Troops will prove adequate to prevent raids and outrages.

The Republican Convention.

COLUMBUS, June 21.—The Republican Convention met to-day and adopted a platform. The first resolution eulogizes the record of the Republican party in the past, and expresses confidence in it for the future. The second recognizes the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the Constitution as accomplished facts, as wise and valid articles of the organic law, to be jealously defended and enforced now, henceforth and forever. The third says: As it will be necessary and desirable to obtain from duties on imports a large portion of revenues needed to defray the expenses of the Government, to pay interest on the national debt and principal as it matures, such duties should be so adjusted as not to prejudice, but to promote the interest of every section and branch of industry, as far as possible. The 4th endorses the administration of Grant. The 5th denounces subsidies to corporations. The 6th favors a civil service act. The 7th expresses a hope of the speedy return of fraternal feeling between the people of all sections of the country, and that the time may soon arrive when it will be proper to remove all political disabilities of the Southerners. The 8th recommends the calling of a State Constitutional Convention. The 9th endorses the State administration.

Gen. E. F. Noyes of Cincinnati, was nominated for Governor by acclamation; Jacob Muller was nominated for Lieut. Governor; West for Supreme Judge; Welch for State Treasurer; and Williams for Auditor of State.

Iowa Republican Convention.

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 21.—The Republican State Convention met here to-day. C. Carpenter was nominated for Governor by acclamation; H. C. Bales, for Lt. Governor; Anson Abernethy, for Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Judge J. D. Davis, for Supreme Judge.

Resolutions were adopted congratulating the country upon the settlement of difficulties with England; in favor of a tariff for revenue only; in favor of the annexation of San Domingo, when the people of the island desire it; endorsing the administration of President Grant; favoring modification of revenue system; opposing railroad subsidies and favoring Legislative control of railroads in the State.

Prospect of Indian Disturbances.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, June 21.—Advices from the upper Missouri say the Indians are growing very troublesome in the vicinity of Forts Berthold and Buford. Several attacks were made recently on settlers and others. The engineers of the Northern Pacific Railroad fear trouble in running their line through the upper country. The Indians declare they won't tolerate the construction of a railroad through the country, and are throwing every obstacle in the way of survey.

Panic in Railroad Stocks.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Wall street was the scene of wild excitement this morning. The occasion was a tremendous break in the price of Rock Island shares, followed by panic. Rock Island opened at 130½ and advanced to 130⅝. There was a sharp demand for cash stock. Everything indicated a corner. In fact at the close last night all arrangements for a corner had been effected, but this morning it began to be whispered that there had been cheating in the pool, and stock began to break. This was followed by an enormous pressure to sell, which carried stock down from 130⅝ to 110. Afterward there was a rally to 113, and transactions were enormous, the telegraph instruments recording that 117,000 had changed hands, but this does not cover all transactions. In explanation of affairs it appears there was a pool in stock, limited to 60,000 shares and that this pool had bought 10,000 shares. At this juncture a prominent speculator and member of the pool was operating largely outside. This individual sold about 50,000 shares of stock, and also bought on his own account over 180,000 shares. This is the current report. He was unable to-day to take his former purchases of Rock Island and was forced to suspend, carrying down down with him a number of brokers. Fourteen have been reported as failed, but some will settle differences and resume. Following is a list of brokers who were reported failed at board or had stock sold for their account by the presiding officers: Robt. Wallor, W. A. Boward, J. W. Gillespie, J. A. Austin, Dater & Thomson, R. G. Word, N. E. Tunis, Earl & Saltonstoll, Fanshaw & McDougall, J. J. Hoyt, A. M. Judson and W. S. Woodward. Large amounts of stock were sold out under rule for other accounts.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The 1st regiment of the National Guard, Col. Barnes, commanding, is ordered to hold itself in readiness for marching orders, on account of mob demonstrations at Amador and Sutter creeks. The first battalion, supplied with Henry rifles, ammunition, and a full field outfit, leaves this evening for the scene of action; the remainder will follow at an hour's notice if required.

There is a general expression here that the mine owners must be sustained, and the rights of men to labor without fear of personal violence from the mob maintained, whatever be the consequences. The National Guard generally expects to be in readiness to turn out and do their whole duty whenever called upon.

The steamship Nevada, the first of Webb's line, reached Auckland, New Zealand, May 14th, four hours ahead of schedule time. She was greeted on arrival at the wharf by over 2,000 people. Bouquets were given her officers at Auckland and Dunedin.

Mining news from New Zealand is very satisfactory.

The canned salmon and salt codfish shipped from San Francisco to Auckland was found almost unsaleable, and could only be closed out at heavy loss to shippers.

The Southern Cross gives a review of trade which is rather discouraging to those who anticipated an immediate and extensive commerce between San Francisco and those colonies.

The Moses Taylor arrived this morning from Honolulu, five days overdue, with 106 passengers, mostly from New Zealand and Australia, bound East. The detention was caused by the collapse of a flue while the steamer was 80 miles out from San Francisco, May 24th, by which Nicholas Prendergast and H. Mooney, firemen, Paul Nicholas and William Young, coal passers, were instantly killed by scalding, and Thomas Harrison, engineer, and Oliver Hayes, water tender, scolded so that they died in a short time. Chief Engineer Whiting held a survey of the steamer and found her all right, and Captain Bennett decided to keep her on her way. She made the round trip with but one boiler. The dead were buried at sea. Several of them left families in San Francisco.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Ohio State Journal reminds the Democracy that they forget one thing in their new departure—they should have completed the platform by resolving that the colored troops fought nobly.

The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle declares that the Southern people will not "swallow the Ohio resolutions, so far as they refer to the so-called constitutional amendments, Civil Rights' bill, and the many other infamous acts and measures which are now incorporated into the laws of the land."

The Philadelphia Sunday Mercury (Dem.) denounces the act of its party State Convention in pretending to yield opposition to negro suffrage, saying that the superfluous and mendacious resolution adopted will not only disgust and drive off many Democrats, but prevent thousands of honest and independent Conservatives from voting with a party that has forged a lie to win an election.

The Columbus (Ga.) Sun says that Davis expresses the whole truth in a nut-shell when he did not "accept the situation," and that such cant phrases are but the excuses of cowards. It refuses to go on any new departure, saying, "We have no ambition to fight in Radical uniforms. We believe that honesty wins when duplicity loses. We wish no 'Republican corks' on which to float into power."

The New Orleans Times intimates that the Southern friends and supporters of Jefferson Davis are treasuring up all the hard things that are now being said of him by the Northern Democratic Press, which has so suddenly changed its tone respecting him, and that they will be recalled to mind by and by when, in view of an urgent demand for all the Southern votes that can be scraped together, they will not be such pleasant Democratic reading as now.

The Republicans of Sacramento (Cal.) have nominated an excellent county ticket. So says the Union, and the Union is generally hard to please. In strong contrast with the Democratic Convention that assembled not long since, very positive anti-railroad subsidy resolutions were passed. The Republicans of Sacramento are united, and are entirely confident of recovering their lost ground. Many Democrats are disgusted with their nominations and will vote the Republican ticket.

CURRENT NOTES.

The overland railroad transported 6,640 through passengers last May, of whom 4,138 passed West, and 2,511 passed East. This is the largest travel since the opening of the road, except one month—May, 1870.

Cleveland, Ohio, is fast running ahead of all other cities in the country in the business of refining petroleum. Philadelphia and Pittsburg are nowhere in comparison, although the crude oil refined at Cleveland is found in the northwestern part of Pennsylvania, and is carried thence a long way west from the market to the city on the lake.

The Medical and Surgical Reporter estimates the cost to the people of the United States of medical services and medicines at $100,000,000, and adds $25,000,000 for the quack medicines swallowed. "Let the people," it says, "study these figures awhile, and then reflect that probably one half, or certainly a large fraction of this expense is incurred by a deliberate infraction of the laws of health; that if they tippled less, smoked less, overworked less and were less fast, they would save some thirty or forty millions a year."

This is George W. Cook's war record, "the member of the family of fighting McCooks," whom the Democrats of Ohio have nominated for Governor: "His regiment was mustered into service May 16, 1864, reported to Gen. Wallace at Baltimore, and was assigned to Gen. Tyler's command; remained in camp a few weeks, and was then ordered by the War Department to Fort Delaware. During the remainder of its term of service the regiment performed guard duty over from twelve to fourteen thousand prisoners. It was mustered out on the 2d of September, 1864."

The Omaha Herald learns that the Rocky Mountain Coal Company have discharged all their white employees except the foreman, and have substituted Chinamen to the number of two hundred. With this kind of labor the company is confident of saving fully thirty per cent. of the previous cost of mining. They have penetrated to the depth of seven hundred feet in their mines at Evanston, Utah, and will turn the 1,000-foot level by September 1st. They have found the quality of the coal to gradually improve with the increased depth, until from a weight of 65 pounds to the cubic foot at the surface, they are now taking out that which runs 90 pounds to the cubic foot. This is equal in density to the Lackawanna anthracite. They have been delivering some 300 tons a month the past winter and spring, but have recently erected new hoisting machinery of sufficient capacity to raise 3,000 tons every twenty four hours. The stock is largely owned by members of the Central Pacific Company, and a great portion of the product of the mines is shipped westward. Between January 1st and April 1st, 16,000 tons were sent to the Pacific coast.

THE TERRITORIES.

Grasshoppers on Bear river and in other parts of Utah, are again appearing in swarms and clouds, and devouring all before them.

The Indians near Olympia are daily gathering oysters and planting them anew for feeding. Next winter they will offer them in the market.

A report is going the rounds of the Eastern press, that a Mormon Elder recently converted and baptized fifteen hundred or so of Kanakas at one fell swoop. Whereupon it is suggested, and by no less an authority than Sam Bowles, editor of the Springfield, Mass., Republican, and who has visited Utah twice, that Brigham may be thinking of emigrating to the Sandwich Islands, with his Kingdom under his arm as one carries an umbrella.

A letter to the Olympia Tribune, dated June 17, contains this: The inhabitants of that great city, Kalama, are fishing for their lots; it being from four to six feet under water clear to the bluff. Persons having business with steamboats to and from the landing, at what is left in sight of the wharf, have to do so in canoes and Bat-boats. I was there to-day, on my way from Portland to this place, and the saddest looking lot of people I ever saw appeared at the landing of the steamboat.

Says a Puget Sound paper: "Of course, we want the railroad as soon as possible, but that's because we can then supply Portland and other outside barbarians with a hundred delicacies taken from the sea, common as wheat to our people, but rare enough to Webfoot palates." This may read well to the unsophisticated; but it may as well be remarked that clams, salmon, flounders, dog fish oil, and other things called "delicacies" by the Puget Sound writer would hardly pass for such in the Portland market, or greatly tempt "Webfoot palates."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Dispatches via London.

LONDON, June 22.—Count de Paris goes to Paris Friday, and then with the Princess of Aumale and Joinville visits Chambord.

The Post says there is an understanding between Germany, Austria and Russia to preserve the peace of Europe.

Dispatches from Paris.

PARIS, June 22.—The Débats proposes the selection of a 2d Chamber of Councels Generaux like the late Senate.

The Assembly sits during the election.

Mortality is increasing in consequence of the arrival of emigrants. Cholera and typhus are not prevalent.

Reviews are fixed for Saturday.

It is said that Gambetta refuses to acknowledge the mandate of the Assembly declaring that his functions ceased when the treaty was voted.

Subscriptions for the new loan open next Monday.

Spanish Affairs.

MADRID, June 22.—In the Cortes the Minister for the Colonies declared that Spain would preserve the integrity of Cuba as long as men were forthcoming. He admitted a Ministerial crisis, but said the Cabinet would resign after approval of the message. Amendments to the message are withdrawn.

Italian Affairs.

FLORENCE, June 22.—The Chambers will adjourn this week. The idea of holding a short session at Rome is abandoned.

The Minister of the Interior orders a dissolution of the Internationals.

EASTERN STATES.

Title to Trinity Church, New York.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Secretary of the Treasury states that he has received a proposition to sell the Trinity Church property in New York for $25,000,000. The proposal comes from parties claiming that the estate belongs to the Government under terms of the treaty of peace in 1778. The Secretary ordered the letter filed, and it is understood he will not consider the offer.

Washington News.

The subscription to the new loan is gradually falling off every day. Secretary Boutwell will not change the financial programme until he hears definitely from Judge Richardson in regard to the views of European bankers and financiers. The Secretary will shortly order the payment of semi annual interest on the public debt. The amount is about $28,000,000.

In Joint Committee on Southern outrages, yesterday, Stephenson of Ohio, offered a resolution to send a sub-Committee of three into the disturbed sections of the South. The Democrats opposed it, and on motion of Senator Blair, the consideration of the resolution was temporarily laid aside.

Pierre, Mayor of Eutaw, Alabama, was examined, and Judge Busteed, of the U. S. Court, has arrived here in obedience to a summons, but was not examined.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Passed west, Thos. Holton and Samuel Holton, Portland; E. M. Waite and wife, W. Breyman and wife, and Mrs. Walt. Smith, Salem.

Gen. Horatio G. Wright, Gen. John G. Foster and Dr. Newcomb, United States Commissioners to examine the Sutro Tunnel project, and Maj. W. King, Secretary of the Commission, left Chicago Wednesday for this coast and will probably arrive in Virginia City on Monday next.

A general willingness is expressed by members of the military to start for Amador county, and those unable to go find substitutes readily.

Fourteen Lincoln sheep arrived from New Zealand by the Moses Taylor.

Several correspondents for the San Francisco press will accompany the troops to the seat of war in Amador county.

Political Prospects in California.

[From the Marysville Appeal June 16.]

On Tuesday next the Democratic State Convention will meet at Sacramento, and end the agony that has so excited the brethren for many months. There is scarcely room to doubt that Haight will be nominated on the first ballot, and some of his friends are even betting that the roll will not be called on his nomination. Were the contest a close one, his defeat might yet be secured in the Convention; but all the returns indicate that he has a working majority so large that it cannot be successfully manipulated. Notwithstanding his apparent popularity within his own party, he is by no means a candidate of such extraordinary strength as many would suppose. San Francisco, the great center of political power, is almost a unit against him. A primary election in that city would not give him more votes than he now has in a delegation "put up" almost entirely by McCoppin. The Irish are particularly opposed to him, mainly for the very good reason that while their votes elected him to office, he has awarded all of his patronage to the chivalry. Then there are the street contractors, who have an army of men in their employ, who swear that they will beat him for having vetoed their bills passed by the last Legislature. The Germans are almost unanimous in their opposition to him, because of his pusillanimous course on the Sunday Law Repealing bill, while hundreds of them have united with the Republican party because of the course pursued by the Democracy during the late European war. His action in pocketing a bill recommended by the Chamber of Commerce, and indorsed by the entire mercantile community, which would have worked an immediate reduction of one third of the port charges of San Francisco, has weakened him with the merchants, and he has few earnest supporters out-side of the "Bread and Butter Brigade," made up of his numerous appointees. In the country, his popularity is not half that of Newton Booth. Politicians will pick his record to pieces, and there are many influential men in his own party who will use their best endeavors to secure his defeat. He has many bitter, positive enemies, whose enmity will be seriously felt in the campaign. Booth starts into the contest fresh, with a unanimous party behind him, all active in his behalf and laboring for his election. He has a record that will stand the closest scrutiny, and is not even open to criticism. The people know he is honest, and they will have sufficient confidence in his judgment and wisdom to intrust the affairs of the State to his keeping. In all the elements necessary to make up the popular candidate, Newton Booth is head and shoulders above his Democratic contemporary. It is only necessary to maintain the present harmony of the Republican party to assure the success of Newton Booth and the whole Republican ticket.

A GEORGIA PAPER SPEAKS FOR DAVIS.—We must say that we envy not that portion of the Southern Democratic press—confined chiefly to Virginia, Kentucky, and Tennessee—that are now engaged in the ungracious task of denouncing our great leader of other days, and thereby aiding the Radical hounds, ever on his track, in hunting him down. Some of these journals speak as if it were a crime in Jefferson Davis to open his lips—that he, of all the men in this broad land, is doomed to eternal silence—that, feel as he may under the wrongs of his countrymen, he can utter no word of protest and express no hope of deliverance. Now, we care not from what motive this condemnatory policy proceeds, it is unjust and wrong. We have no sympathy for it. We would not appease even the wrath of the North by an act of ingratitude and self-abasement. Instead of joining the Radical hue and cry and making war upon Mr. Davis for his public expressions of opinion, so scandalously falsified by the Radical press, it would be far more becoming and just in Southern journalists to put him right before the world, to show what he did say and mean, and establish the meanness and mendacity of those who for a party purpose do not scruple to ascribe to him words that he never uttered, and purposes that he never entertained. In his recent speeches, so much condemned, Mr. Davis did not utter a sentiment that has not been expressed and reiterated over and over again, perhaps a thousand times, by every Democratic journal in the South. Why not, then, go forward and defend him in the truth instead of uniting with his enemies of the North to decry and denounce him?—Savannah Republican.

Narrow Gauge.

In connection with the Walla Walla and Wallula railroad project, the Walla Walla Statesman reviews the plan of a narrow gauge road. Gen. Tilton in his report on the survey argued against narrow gauge, but the Statesman holds that such a road would answer all purposes, and, costing two-thirds less than the broad gauge, would come within the means of the people of the valley, who are expected to meet the expense of construction.

The general discussion of this subject by the press of the country has brought out many facts of value relative to the construction and operation of the narrow gauge roads. This discussion proves beyond doubt that this class of roads have many advantages, and are particularly suited to all new countries and thinly settled districts, where the increased cost of broad gauge lines often prevents the construction of any road at all. The system is by no means new or untried. A considerable number of narrow gauge lines are in operation, and have been working for years with great success in various parts of the world. One of the narrowest of these is in North Wales, which, in its entire equipment—signals, stations, engines, carriages, and rolling stock—is equal in finish and in some respects superior in efficiency to that of any road in the Kingdom. This road, which has a two-foot gauge, was constructed in [illegible] as a horse tram-road, but has for many years been operated solely by steam. The line thirteen miles in length, is on an ascending gradient the whole way, the average rise being one in 92 for twelve and a half miles. It follows the side of a mountain, and in not a few places it is possible, standing on the engine, to look down a sheer depth of 100 feet. The line is tortuous in the extreme, inasmuch that a moderately long train may be in three curves at once. In six years not a single accident has occurred on this road, over which trains of 122 tons, including freight and passengers, are frequently carried at an average speed of twenty miles an hour. The carriages on this road are six feet and a quarter in width, by nine feet and a half in length, and carry comfortably twelve passengers. The good wagons—what we call freight cars—are seven feet and a half in length by two feet eleven inches in width inside. The coal trucks have a capacity of six tons, and the road has in every respect, even with its exceptionably narrow gauge, proved a complete success, where one constructed on the ordinary system would, if not altogether impossible, have proved difficult of operation and wholly unremunerative.

The average cost of these roads is from one-third to one-half that of the ordinary lines. The carrying capacity as well as speed obtainable on the narrow gauge system is quite surprising, and the moderate cost of maintenance and operation is another point in their favor.

The adaptability of this system to the development of mountainous districts, like many parts of our Pacific States and Territories, deserves to be considered. Roads of this gauge can penetrate where no roads of wide gauge could possibly be constructed. Districts now remote and nearly inaccessible can by this system be brought into direct and speedy communication with centers of business and population. As feeders to trunk lines these roads bid fair to become invaluable. The system is already being tried in New York and New Jersey, where narrow gauge roads are in course of construction, in order to open communication with districts remote from main lines, but capable of supporting large traffic.

Lotteries vs. Industries.

Under this head the Rural Press, published at San Francisco, considers the demoralizing tendencies and effects of the system of public and open gambling which is carried on throughout California, under the name of "Gift Concerts" and the like. The picture drawn by the Press is one to shrink back from. The scheme authorized by the Legislature for the benefit of the Mercantile Library Association was the fruitful parent of this numerous progeny of gambling operations. In effect,—we quote the words of the Press—it has indorsed and protects gambling in all portions of the State, and among all classes and conditions of society. Even boys, taking their hint from the men, are clubbing together and getting up gaming schemes in favor of debating clubs, etc., and inviting the girls to become public gamblers for their benefit." Following is a list of lotteries drawn, or now in progress, with the amount of money involved in each:

Mercantile Library	$1,000,000
Grass Valley first	250,000
Marysville	150,000
Nevada first	150,000
[illegible]	500,000
[illegible] Pier	150 000
Grass Valley second	150,,00
North San Juan	75,000
[illegible]	187,500
Placerville	125,000
Nevada second	250,000
[illegible]	75,000
[illegible] county	100,000
[illegible] at Sacramento	130,000
[illegible] Debating Club at Sacramento	2,000
[illegible] and others, the amount involved not [illegible] known, say	200,000
Total	$3,535,500

Idle men and idle money are the results that follow naturally from the indulgence of this vice. Large sums are withdrawn from circulation and locked up for indefinite periods, and men who are taking chances in the game and indulging a hope of good fortune therefrom, abandon honest and productive industry and aggravate the misfortunes of their poverty.

It may safely be predicted that the next Legislature will take measures to check the progress of this evil, which is equally harmful to the morals and prosperity of the people.

Jeff Davis' speeches, says the New York Times, cannot be explained away by ridiculing their author, as the Democratic Press is doing. As soliloquies they would be harmless; but the reception accorded to them by the Southern people gives them special significance. Mr. Horace Greely, just from the South, and fresh from an interview with Davis, says of those who struggled and fought for secession generally, that "Jefferson Davis' late speeches fairly express their average convictions and feelings." Mr. Greeley's report agrees entirely with the tone of many Southern journals—of all those which policy, open or concealed, does not muzzle.

Very many of the Southern Democratic papers are taking their stand against the "new departure." The La Grange (Ga.) Reporter says that even should the new move prove a good stroke of policy for the success of the Democratic party next year, its results may prove to be disastrous to the sovereignty of the States and the liberties of the people in the end; and it therefore calls upon the Democracy to look more to permanent success and lasting triumph of principle than to mere ephemeral victory.

The last Legislature of California appointed a Commission to revise and codify the laws of the State. The Commission will report its labors to the Legislature at the next session. It appears that all the legislation of twenty-one years is to be digested, recast, modified and reduced to a consistent whole. This, at all events, is the scope of the plan.

Southern Sentiment.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune has "interviewed" that sterling "Democrat," Robert Toombs of Georgia, and received from him Southern views as to the present and prospective political situation. We quote from the correspondent's letter:

In a few minutes Gen. Toombs came in, and soon commenced to talk politics. I told him that he was understood to represent the most ultra wing of the Democratic party in Georgia, and that I was desirous of learning his views upon political questions. "Yes," he said, "I am one of the red-hot kind." "What do you think of the new departure of the Northern Democracy, as expounded by Vallandigham and the Pennsylvania Convention? Shall you support it?" "Never. I would sooner vote for Horace Greeley than for any Democrat upon such a platform. Greeley and the Republicans first got it up, it's their patent, and I have more respect for them than for such scoundrels as Vallandigham, who wants to steal their ideas." Mr. Toombs spoke at some length in this style, declaring finally that the people of the South could never be brought to accept the Constitutional Amendments as finalities, and that if the Democratic party took that ground they would have nothing to do with that party. "What do you look forward to in the future?" I asked; "how can you escape the results of the war?" "We will fight you again just as soon as we can get ready," he answered; "and I believe we can get ready much sooner than most people think." "You cannot seriously believe that the South will attempt another war?" "I certainly do, and I believe I shall live to see Southern Independence. Many of our people are losing the hope that they will see 'Shiloh' in their day, but they are training their children up to take up the work."

Gen. Toombs spoke with great bitterness of the Reconstruction acts and Constitutional amendments. The party that passed them were liars, he said, for they pretended to believe in self-government, and at the same time would not give the South any liberty to regulate her own affairs, but ruled her first by military officers and then by a horde of Northern thieves, sent down here to hold the offices and tyrannize over the people. "Why can't you let us alone?" he went on excitedly. "If your idea of government is not a lie, stay away and let us manage our own affairs. We don't want to have anything to do with you. We had the satisfaction of killing more than 200,000 of you, and if my advice had been followed the war would not have ended until we had killed more." Once upon the subject of the war, he went on to argue the right of secession, to denounce the North, and to call the Union army a horde of mercenaries, marauders, and thieves. It was clear that the war had taught him no lesson, and that his feelings were as bitter as they were when the contest was at its hight.

Will Mormonism Die Out?

Upon this subject a Salt Lake correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes:

I am not sure that polygamy will be crowded out by reason where there is so little reason; nor by pressure where the inside is so solid. Men like Delegate Hooper says that the social passion among the women will stop it, they refusing to marry a part of a man, because their gentile neighbors already taboo polygamous families, while, also, the Mormon women are getting so fine in apparel and gayety that one man cannot afford to keep two of them. But I was struck with the fact that so many young men are every day, in our times, committing plural marriages. Each such juvenile marriage sends polygamy over to another generation. The young men like it besides, and a Mormon said to me that it was the most popular feature of the church. Here is a bit of dialogue we had with the one-armed driver before referred to. He was about thirty years old:

"How many wives have you?"

"Two."

"Both give you children?"

"Yes; three apiece."

"Don't they quarrel?"

"Oh, we soon get used to that."

"Do you mean to marry again?"

"Yes, I guess so; if I get plenty of jobs this year, two are not enough. Any industrious fellow can marry more than that."

Several, perhaps many men in Salt Lake have but one wife, such being intelligent, worldly men, who have dealings with the outer race, but, in my belief, the majority of youths look forward with ardor to plural marriages, and they save out of the sacrifice of the other vices means to enjoy the privilege. About everybody of ecclesiastical prominence in the church has several wives, and such bear themselves with added dignity. According to the number of the hens so grandiosely bears himself the cock, and I remarked amongst the most polygamous elders that easy self-consciousness and grace of carriage becoming what are truly "ladies' men." As to the women supporting polygamy, that is probably true in part.

Who will be the Candidate?

The New York Herald takes the following view of the Democratic situation as to Presidential candidates.

What Democrat, then, will serve to run on this new Democratic departure? We think it brings out Governor Hoffman into pretty bold relief as the Tammany candidate. His skirts are clear of the Tammany Convention resolutions of 1868, and he and Tammany Hall are ahead of Vallandigham, and ahead even of John Quincy Adams on this new departure. He will be a new bottle for the new wine of these new amendments, and strong enough to withstand the pressure of the gas without much danger of an explosion from the fermentation. Certainly, if in this new departure of Vallandigham it was his design, first, to head off his friend Pendleton, and, next, to advance the chances of Hoffman, the device was well contrived. We say well contrived, because while the call to toe the mark of these three new amendments somewhat demoralized "the red-hot Democracy" of the West, it brings the New York Democrats and their candidate to the front, for they are all right on this change of base. Mr. Vallandigham, then, who more than any other man was instrumental in securing for New York the Democratic standard-bearer of 1868, will, perhaps, prove as effective in making a New Yorker the candidate in 1872. Manifestly, with this change of front in the West, Tammany Hall is master of the Democratic situation, and Hoffman is her man.

AN OLD VESSEL.—The San Francisco Bulletin of the 10th inst. has the following notice of one of the oldest vessels of our navy.

The old wooden sloop-of-war Cyane arrived yesterday afternoon from Selina Cruz, on the Mexican coast. The Cyane was built as long ago as 1810, and was captured from Great Britain by the United States frigate Constitution, in command of Capt. Steward, February 20, 1815. The British sloop-of-war Levant was captured at the same time. The Cyane has since been rebuilt at various times. She has been stationed on this coast since 1845, and has been in this port a number of times previously. She is vividly remembered by all old '59ers as one of the features of this harbor in early days. She was in command of Captain (now Admiral) Dupont, from whom Dupont street received its name. She was here when war was declared between the United States and Mexico, and warmed up her old blood by a flying cruise down the coast, during which she captured several prizes of Mexican vessels. She last left San Francisco to attend on a surveying party at Tehauntepec. The Cyane carries fourteen guns, and is of 695 tons register. Her crew consists of 14 officers and 81 men.

A Democratic Nominee on the "New Departure."

The Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky, the Hon. John G. Carlisle, has been questioned by a reporter on the subject of the "new departure of the Ohio Democracy. Mr. Carlisle said: "In the first place, I do not think that the resolution passed by the Ohio Democracy, declaring that the constitutional amendments are no longer political issues before the country, will have the effect which they appear to have supposed it would. Instead of withdrawing them as subjects for political discussion, it will give them far more prominence than they ever had heretofore, and they will be confronted by them throughout the entire canvas. The only way in which any question can be withdrawn from the arena of political discussion is for both parties to ignore it altogether. This cannot be done as to these amendments, because they present real living issues, in which the people feel a very deep interest. They are not dead issues, and politicians cannot kill them by resolution. The Ohio Democrats seem to recognize this to some extent at least, for they have simply attempted to turn the discussion away from the validity and merits of the amendments themselves to the question of their construction. In this I think they have made a grievous mistake. The Democratic party, having at all times protested against the principles of the amendments, and against the means by which their final adoption was secured, is justly entitled to the benefit of whatever advantage can be acquired over the Republican party on account of its fraudulent and forcible alteration of the Constitution of the country. I am not one of those who believe that the courts have no power to try the validity of any one or all of these amendments. On the contrary, I believe that they have such power, and that it is their duty to exercise it whenever a proper case is presented. No one now proposes to resist the amendments by any other than legal means, and if they are held to be valid, either because they were in fact regularly adopted, or because of some technical obstacle to the investigation of the question, they must of course stand until such time as they can be annulled in the mode prescribed in the Constitution itself. There is nothing revolutionary in our position. We have as much right to agitate for a repeal of any portion of the Constitution as others have to urge its amendment by adding to its provisions, and there is no more reason for an imputation of hostility to the Government in the one case than the other."

Southern Political Sentiment.

THE NEW DEPARTURE.

It is the want of backborne on the part of the Democracy of the North, said the Savannah (Ga.) Republican on the 21st of May, that is discouraging and disheartening their Southern allies. This servile tone, it continued—we quote its exact words—must be changed before the Southern Democrats can be induced to co-operate with any heart in the next Presidential election.

Quickly the Columbus (Ga.) Sun quoted these sentiments and said: "The Republican is correct." And going further in its great frankness, it added: "If we wish to be free, we must not lean on others, but strike the first blow. God will help those who help themselves. If we, of the South, are citizens of the Government, our voice should be heard and heeded in the formation and expression of its policy and legislation, and that voice, feeble though it be, should never sound the suppressed notes and whispers of slaves or hypocrites. Let us resist by tongue and pen, if not by the sword, the first, and last, and every invasion of our rights under the Constitution."

JEFF. DAVIS.

Hon. Henry W. Hilliard, as he introduced this same "ex-President," as they called him, to the people of Augusta, on the evening of May 27th, when the Democratic citizens crowded to greet him, used these words as reported in the leading Democratic paper of the city, the Constitutionalist: "We are here to welcome you. I do not know that any higher tribute can be paid to any man than that which we offer to you this evening. You see around you those who come to offer you the unbought tribute of their respect and admiration." "History will vindicate you." "I know that you were not rash. You did what you could to save the Republic, to promote peace, to adjust the quarrel. I do not now propose to review the dread drama that closed in the overthrow of the Southern cause. That is not a lost cause. It is the cause of constitutional liberty, and will yet triumph."

The Old Tactics of Hypocrisy.

[From the Buffalo Express.]

This Democratic maneuver, it must be remembered, is nothing new. It is simply a repetition of tactics which the Democratic party has been compelled, by the forward march of great events during the last ten years, to adopt again and again—frequently upon the small scale, and twice before upon the scale of absolute retreat and total "new departure" now undertaken. The approach of each Presidential election since 1860 has found the Democratic party occupying a position in which it dared not encounter its antagonists, and which it must hurriedly evacuate, by the execution of one of these grand retreats which it comforts itself by denominating "a new departure." There is not a single novel feature in the circumstances under which we are now witnessing the third attempt of the Democratic party to wriggle itself out of an untenable position, preparatory to the contesting of a Presidential election. Just as it fought against the prosecution of the war for the Union, and fought against the loyal reconstruction of the subjugated Rebel States, it has fought against the final implanting of the Democratic principles of equal suffrage and equal citizenship—the ultimate negation of the doctrines of slavery—until it dare not face the people in that fight any longer. It has but the one recourse—the old tactics of hypocrisy—the often tried profession of a "new departure" and our Federal Constitution—an eleventh hour conversion, on the eve of a decisive appeal to the judgment of the nation. We have surely seen the maneuvor practiced often enough to know about the manner in which it will be performed and about how it will work.

Wendell Phillips, alluding to the late speech of Horace Greeley and his "new departure," says, "If the Republicans are to take a new departure from Grant, as is the real meaning and intention of the Greeley movement, I mistrust it will take some one higher, not downward to the lower level of Mr. Greeley's platform."

Texas has more milch cows than any other State in the Union. You can buy one for six or eight dollars in Houston, but milk is scarce and butter 60 cents a pound!

They say that if the grog-shops of Philadelphia were placed in a row, they would reach just twenty-two miles. Fifteen millions of money annually are spent in these places.

Valuable Hints.

A regular habit of body is absolutely essential to physical health and clearness of Intellect. Nor is this all. Beauty of person cannot co-exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through these natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of the offal of a city through its sewers is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs, and one of its most common results is constipation. This complaint, besides being dangerous in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant breath, a sallow skin, contaminating blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory and general debility.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters remove all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant or a tonic or an antibilious agent, or a nervine, or a blood depurent or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membrane which lines it, gently stimulates the liver, braces the nerves, and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristics that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious; and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the stronger.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label, is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits

Stock Books Open.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING BEEN APPOINTED by the Incorporators of the Valley and Salt Lake Railroad Company to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, does hereby declare such books now open for subscription at his office in this city.

This is done now, because it was thought that the citizens of Oregon, and especially of Portland, along the line of the proposed road would take sufficient stock, at least to begin the enterprise, and enable them to exert an influence in its management.

A certain proportion of the Directors are required to be residents of the State, who must be chosen by stockholders before Directors. While the invitation to subscribe thereto is cordial, I will visit Eastern Oregon and Idaho during the month of July to give the citizens there an opportunity of engaging with us in the good cause.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

PORTLAND Thursday, June 22, 1871

Gold at New York quoted at 111¼—no change since last week

Currency quotations at Portland 89½c buying, 90½c selling

Exchange—On San Francisco ½ per cent. [illegible] New York, 1½ per cent.

Telegraphic transfers—On New York, 1½ per cent. premium

Interest—Bank rates for short loans, 1 per cent.

Money is a little less plenty in general circulation, than during the early part of the season. For legitimate [illegible] purposes, however, [illegible] are effected [illegible] usual terms. Outside rates of interest are a little [illegible] though there seems to be no settled terms each borrower taking or giving such terms as the [illegible] may offer or demand.

[illegible] to monetary affairs east and at San Francisco [illegible] Commercial Herald of the 16th [illegible] the last mail dates the New York market [illegible] state of the [illegible] plethora, rates being [illegible] with large transactions on Government [illegible] per cent. It was thought that the ex[illegible] had reached its maximum and that the [illegible] the Western States to move the wool crop [illegible] arise and cause a hardening tendency. But [illegible] Chicago and St. Louis indicate [illegible] markets were also well supplied with currency and in the event of greater requirement than their present condition could well bear, the banks in those [illegible] call back the large amounts of National Bank [illegible] New York, yielding them four per cent. interest [illegible] lying idle in the vaults of the New York banks [illegible] some greater requisition shall arise we incline to the opinion that money will continue to be very easy in that city for some time to come.

[illegible]—The amount of available money in our local market is exceptionally large, with a moderate demand and a constantly [illegible] supply. There are [illegible] evidences of remarkably contemporaneous [illegible] all the great money centers of the civil[illegible] the exception of France, but the restoration [illegible] that war afflicted country will [illegible] a return of the large amounts sent away [illegible] as well as for heavy additional supplies [illegible] of long and eminently destructive [illegible] it will be a long time yet before confidence is fully restored and even then the higher rates available in the American markets on Government railroad and other securities of unexceptionable [illegible] give that country preference in the minds of [illegible].

[illegible] mercantile circles we find business moderately good though there is an evident falling off in the aggregate since last week. The damage to the railroad bridge at the Cascades portage has shut off all [illegible] trade of the upper Columbia, and [illegible] [illegible] to the farmers themselves, who will in consequence be unable to get the machinery wanted, in time for their harvests which are now near at hand. Considerable shipments of machinery and tools have been made during the week to the Wallamet valley and the aggregate of trade in this line has been very near the standard.

Dry Goods—The demand for summer goods still keeps up. The stocks however are pretty well sold up. Business good [illegible] the adverse circumstances above mentioned [illegible] in this line are reported fair. No change in prices except a further advance in woolens.

Hardware—Trade is still moderately fair but slacking [illegible] from last week. The local trade constitutes a large portion of the aggregate in this line.

Building material—Lumber of all building descriptions is unusually scarce.

[illegible]—Favorite brands are a little cheaper than heretofore. [illegible] is out of the market entirely. Low grade brands are also quoted down a trifle.

Wool—Prices are firmer, as the spring clip works off. We quote [illegible] that Eastern Oregon wool comes in this year in better condition than heretofore [illegible] cleaner washed and put up in better shape. The mills are buying but little differ[illegible] between the clip of the Wallamet valley and that of [illegible] Oregon and Washington.

Produce—Wheat has dropped again 5 cents per bushel. Very little, however is arriving, or to be purchased in the country, and quotations are therefore largely nominal [illegible] at the figures quoted last week, but the market is extremely dull.

Provisions [illegible] is lower and dull. Butter has advanced for all table descriptions.

Fruit—Our price list shows some changes in this line—prices mostly advanced.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.

We quote the following paragraphs from the Commercial Herald of the 16th inst

[illegible] receipts of certain articles of Oregon produce from January 1st to date have been as follows: Flour gr sks 110,015 [illegible] 79,921 [illegible] 4,7 2 [illegible] bbls, 1,491 [illegible] bbls 125 pkgs, 8,820 bacon pkgs, 1,454 beef bbls [illegible] 26 hams pkgs 173 butter pkgs, [illegible] lard, pkgs 401 pork bbls, 1,186 dried apples pkgs, [illegible] bxs, 7,431.

We have had [illegible] and quiet market in flour and grain ever since [illegible] up beyond a safe export value [illegible] then stepped in the bud and [illegible] retired from the field of operation [illegible] our stock [illegible] chiefly Oregon, has been [illegible] without any outlet for it, even [illegible] trade lan[illegible]. Within the short period under review we are in receipt of two Oregon cargoes [illegible] Miller and Ori[illegible], bringing 8,300 bbls flour, [illegible] ctls wheat, 1,368 sks oats, 3,473 sks bran [illegible] 1,309 sks flax, [illegible] salmon [illegible] etc. There still exists a wide difference [illegible] prominent men in the grain business [illegible] out of our surplus the [illegible] However the weight of testimony goes to show [illegible] breadstuffs surplus for export [illegible] all the wants of the State, at at least 100,000 tons and there are those who [illegible] even a larger [illegible] do that we will have to draw heavily upon [illegible]. In that State crop prospects are more promising and that of prime quality. Her surplus for export will be large.

Bacon, Hams [illegible]. We note sales of [illegible] Oregon bacon [illegible] Eastern [illegible] private terms; Chicago sides [illegible] 14@15c, Duffield's, 16c [illegible] 19c lard, in [illegible] 14@15 [illegible] 15½c. The following prices approximate current rates [illegible] packers. Bacon breakfast per lb [illegible] belly [illegible] hams, salt 17½@18c. [illegible] Eastern do from second hands [illegible] Whittaker's St. Louis per [illegible] Oregon 18@20c. Brown's [illegible] Magnolia [illegible] Wilson & Co's epicure [illegible] superior [illegible].

The market for [illegible] stocked, the supply in bbls, from [illegible] and these are obtainable at moderate [illegible]. Our stock of Columbia river salmon [illegible] for quality, is well suited for export, and Hapgood [illegible] Co's brand is held at $[illegible].

Dairy Products—Our local butter supplies are steadily [illegible] and prices shade off. Cheese also arrives in [illegible] quantities, and yet, with an active demand prices are sustained for all choice dairies—a decided preference [illegible]. California eggs are less plentiful, yet the Oregon and Eastern receipts tend to keep down prices. We quote California at 26c; Oregon, [illegible] Chicago [illegible].

Bran—The mill supply is scant at $27 50. Late receipts from Oregon sold at about $25 per ton otherwise, the mill price [illegible] be advanced to $30.

Middlings—[illegible] supply is meagre, including Oregon receipts. Price $[illegible] per ton according to quality.

The Oregon and Puget Sound lumber trade is less easily controlled and prices not altogether stable. Cargoes of Oregon rough approximate $14@15 dressed, $[illegible] spruce [illegible] redwood rough, $15. The mill price with cargo sales from northern ports, is $8 50@10 for lumber [illegible] for flooring. The following cargo rates [illegible] have been established by the [illegible] Rough, $15; surfaced $28 [illegible] and grooved $28 tongued and grooved, beaded $28; rustic worked $31; siding and battens ½ inch [illegible] $25 pickets rough $14, pickets dressed, $22 50, laths [illegible] per M.

[illegible] continues to be of absorbing interest [illegible] year that California has been looked to as the controlling element of the markets of the Union [illegible] we have shipped East the present season, nearly [illegible] million pounds. The market has not opened [illegible] for a short period [illegible] of wools were suffered to accumulate [illegible] the present month a prominent wool [illegible] very quietly purchased the entire [illegible]. The same is now being graded and [illegible] house of the purchasers, Park [illegible] promptly forwarded to the East [illegible] advised as to the real cause which [illegible] speculative purchase of wool, but [illegible] the belief that it was occasioned by the [illegible] world of the entire wool clip of South America usually finding its outlet at Buenos Ayres and [illegible]. The yellow fever now raging in [illegible] occasion its exports of perhaps one hundred and twenty five million pounds wool to [illegible] ports wherever sent, and the loss [illegible] of wool to the manufacturers of the world must soon begin to tell upon the prices everywhere. The Messrs Flints are among the heaviest sheep-growers on this coast, and by late purchases are probably the heaviest wool holders of California stock. [illegible] should be remembered here that the bulk of our wools bought for Eastern purchasers was for manufacturing in their own factories, and not for purposes of sale in East[illegible]. This will account for the limited amount of our wools on sale in Eastern marts.
